license applied for and till it is received the gun cannot be used. The license may be ordered to be renewed once in three years.

Reply of Government.—Vide reply to Subject No. 35.

SUBJECT NO. 37.

Appointment of a Police Commission.

Messrs. Padmanna, Chandrasekhariah and K. Venkatasamiah, Nanjangud taluk.

Summary of discussion.—In order to improve the efficiency of the Police Department, a commission consisting of official and non-official members who should visit the spot, make enquiries, etc., and obtain the views and evidence of important persons, may be appointed.

Mr. Venkatasamiah mentioned the following points for consideration by the Commission if appointed:—

(1) Improvement of the pay, status and prospects of the members of the Police Department.

(2) Selection of efficient and properly qualified men.

(3) Improving the relations between the Police and the people.

(4) Making the Police more useful and less troublesome.

Reply of Government.—The suggestions will be duly considered.

SUBJECT NO. 38.

Horse allowance to police jamedars.

Mr. Venkatasamigowda, Malur taluk.

Summary of discussion.—The horse allowance to police jamedars may be raised from Rs. 8 to Rs. 10 in accordance with the scale sanctioned to sanitary, excise and tank inspectors.

Reply of Government.—A question of funds.

SUBJECT NO. 39.

Taluk Sheristedar or the Sub-Registrar to grant remand during the absence of the Amildar-Magistrate on circuit.

Mr. C. Rasool Khan, Anjuman-e-Islamiah, Chikmagalur.

Note—Not discussed owing to the absence of the proposer.

REVENUE.

(Nos. 40—93.)

SUBJECT NO. 40.

Transferring certain minor items of land revenue such as sale proceeds of trees, sites sold, etc., to the village improvement fund.

Mr. Herur Gundappa, Kunigal taluk.

Note.—Not discussed owing to the absence of the proposer.

SUBJECT NO. 41.

Subordinating the Village Committees to Taluk Progress Committees.

Mr. Nanjappa Setti, Mysore District Board.

Summary of discussion.—In the interest of the progress of the Village Committees, they may be subordinated to the Taluk Progress Committees.

Messrs. B. Narasinga Rao and B. V. Narayana Rao spoke against the proposal, arguing that such a step would have the same undesirable effect as the conversion of minor municipalities into unions.

Reply of Government.—Not necessary at present.